THE RECENT STABBING AFFRAY. James Halleck, who was stabbed in the abdoment by, as is alleged, one Alexander Farrell, while re-turning from an excursion on the East River, as mentioned in the Herald of Wednesday, is understood to be still in a dangerous condition at his home in Harlem. The accused has been confined in the Town Hall at Morrisania, Westchester county, since the evening of the occurrence, although the right of the authorities of that town to hold the man is exceedingly quotiful. In justice to the numbers of a peaceable and orderly society it may be stated that the disgraceful affray indicated too place on the barge Merchant, which had been chartered for an excursion by the men composing the J L. Mott Association.
